

Happenings in Missouri.

Crow's Effective Speech.
A recent dispatch from Jefferson City said: The conviction of Senator William P. Sullivan on the charge of soliciting a bribe has caused great anxiety among the friends of the other defendants in the state boudoir cases. The penalty, a fine of $100, was small, it is true, but it was, as a matter of fact, the maximum fine that could be imposed for soliciting a bribe. In addressing the jury Attorney General Crow spoke for 15 minutes, but in that time he made things hot for the defendant and Senator Smith and Emmett Newton. He said that it made no difference if the defendant had previously borne a good reputation, as that only emphasized the enormity of his crime. "I believe," said he, "that the defense in this case is built and framed on perjured testimony. There is not a man on this jury who would convict a nigger of stealing watermelons on the testimony of Emmett Newton. I wish to say that I will be personally responsible for my remarks."

Missionary Society's Election.
The synodical meeting of the Women's Missionary societies of the synod of Missouri of the Cumberland Presbyterian church was the feature of the big encampment at Pertie Springs Friday. The following officers were elected: Mrs. W. J. Brasfield, St. Louis, president; Mrs. G. P. Bailey, Kansas City, first vice president; Mrs. W. H. Biggs, Kirkwood, second vice president; Mrs. M. A. Buchanan, Moberly, recording secretary; Mrs. Jessie A. Noble, Ulrich, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Mrs. G. L. Knapp, Ulrich, secretary young people's work; Mrs. G. H. Althouse, Marshall, secretary of literature.

Mining Congress Delegates.
Gov. Dockery has appointed the following delegates to represent the state of Missouri at the American mining congress, which meets in Deadwood and Lead, S. D., September 7-12, 1932: W. B. Williams, Rich Hill; R. G. Rombauer, Novinger; J. C. McGrew, Lexington; W. E. Murlin, Bevier; B. H. Johnston, Mendota; B. F. Wiley, Lexington; William Ballew, Higginsville; William Walton, Higbee; H. J. Cantwell, St. Louis; A. A. Daugherty, Mine La Motte; J. H. Bartle, Union; Hugh McGregor, Potosi; John Kingston; Granby; W. S. Mears, Joplin; J. W. Aylor, Webb City; Henry Brumbeck, Mount Vernon.

To Eradicate Cattle Diseases.
The Missouri state board of agriculture held a meeting at Columbia recently for the purpose of appointing delegates to the meeting of international sanitary boards, to be held at Denver, September 22. W. S. Prather, of Tarkio; C. F. Afflick, of Clarence; N. H. Centry, of Sedalia, and J. J. McNatt, of McNatt, were appointed. Dr. D. Lucky, of Columbia, and W. L. Bryant, of Independence, were named to confer with the Kansas authorities, with a view to eradicating disease in cattle in the two states.

Dunklin County's Cotton Crop.
Cotton has been added to the long list of crops for which Missouri soil seems to be adapted and which can be successfully grown here. The cotton crop of Missouri for 1932 amounted to 20,725,600 pounds, which marketed for $2,220,000. Nearly half of this large crop was grown in one county, Dunklin, and the whole crop was produced in fewer than a dozen counties.

A Folk Daily at Joplin.
The first step toward the establishment of a new evening democratic paper in Joplin was taken in the purchase of a large local printing plant by a syndicate of politicians who favor the election of Folk for governor and the re-election of Benton for congress. Several typesetting machines will be installed and new presses added.

Five Generations Were Living.
Reuben Hume is dead at Columbia at the age of 81. He was the oldest son of Mrs. Henrietta Hume, who is now 103 years old. With his death there is broken a chain of direct descendants of his mother for five generations. His daughter, granddaughter, and great grandmother are living.

New Telephone Company.
The Mountain Grove Telephone company, with $10,000 capital, was organized at Mountain Grove, the object of which is to connect by telephone Mountain Grove and a number of towns in the eastern part of Douglas and adjoining counties.

Akins Favors Bothwell.
Thomas J. Akins, chairman of the republican state committee, picks John H. Bothwell, of Sedalia, as the republican candidate for congress.

Death of Mrs. Hillhouse.
Mrs. Phoebe Hillhouse, aged 87, a native of Missouri, is dead at Warrensburg. She was the widow of Capt. J. M. Hillhouse.

More Than She Could Bear.
Mattie Burnett, aged 19, killed herself with strychnine at the home of Ollie Jenkins, nine miles from Sedalia. She left a note to Edward Maltby, a young man to whom she was engaged, saying that his indifference was more than she could bear.

Folk Club With 300 Members.
A folk club was organized at Liberty with 300 members. Thomas J. Wornall was elected president; John S. Major, vice president, and T. C. Emerson, secretary.

Union Veterans' Reunion.
The eighth Missouri convocation, the twenty-fourth Missouri infantry and remnants of several other regiments of the veterans of the civil war were at a reunion at the Zoo park north of Springfield.

Masons Laid Cornerstone.
The cornerstone of the new M. E. church at Moberly was laid Thursday by the officers of the Masonic grand lodge. The new building is to take the place of the one destroyed by fire last February.

Stray Bullet Struck Girl.
In a row over some mining property at the Springfield coal mines, William C. Cole fired several shots at John Clayton, a mine boss, one of which took effect in his side. A young girl, named Edith Forsha, was struck in the mouth by a stray bullet, and also dangerously wounded. Cole made his escape, accompanied by his brother, James, and both are supposed to be heavily armed.

Fine New Church at Chillicothe.
Nearly all of the Protestant churches in Chillicothe united Sunday in the dedicatory services for the new Elm Street M. E. church, south, in that city. Bishop E. R. Hendrix, of Kansas City, preached the dedicatory sermon. This church was erected at a cost of $15,000 and is constructed of white stone and buff brick. It is one of the most beautiful and imposing churches in north-west Missouri.

Kidnaped His Children.
James G. Cooper, of Kansas City, is under arrest at Joplin charged with kidnaping his two children. Mrs. Cooper, who traced her husband and children to Joplin, sets up the claim that she was divorced from Cooper and given the custody of the children. She charges that Cooper stole them from her parents' home in Kansas City and went to Joplin.

Production of Coal Last Year.
The annual report of Charles Evans, state coal mine inspector of Missouri, shows that coal mining is an important industry of Missouri. The total production of coal for the year just closed in Missouri was 4,063,572 tons, as compared with 3,813,521 tons in the preceding year, showing an increase of 250,051 tons.

Wife Could Not See Her Husband.
Because he was afraid Mrs. Oscar Rhodes, of Covington, Ky., would refuse to come out of jail if she once got inside and would thereby become a charge upon the county, the sheriff of St. Louis county at Clayton would not permit the woman to go inside the prison to see her husband.

Three Generations in One Office.
Three generations of one family are "sitting type" in the office of the Trenton Republican-Tribune. They are "Grandpa" Allen, aged 65 years, his son, C. A. Allen, who is foreman of the shop, and the latter's son and daughter, Tom and Mabel, aged 14 and 12 years, respectively.

He'll Run on Folk's Ticket.
Harry H. Banks, cashier of the Columbia savings bank, who has just completed a second term as Boone county treasurer, will be a candidate for state treasurer on the democratic ticket. He is a strong Folk democrat and will make his campaign with this understanding.

Long Trip by Canoe.
Harry E. Bradley and C. V. Hewitt, of St. Louis county, who were attending the Missouri university summer school, made the entire trip of 200 miles home in a skiff which they purchased at McBaine and will return in the same way for the winter term of the university.

Northwest Missouri Electric Line.
Secretary of State Cook chartered the Maryville & St. Joseph Electric Railway company, of Maryville. The company proposes to build a line 70 miles long from Parnell, in Nodaway county, to St. Joseph, running through Nodaway, Andrew and Buchanan counties.

Miss Douglas Succeeds Bassett.
Miss Ellen Douglas, of Cape May, N. J., has been appointed to succeed Prof. Bassett in Missouri university as assistant professor in languages. Prof. Bassett has accepted a similar position in Kansas university.

Surveying for Water Works.
A hydraulic engineer has been secured to make a preliminary survey of Nevada, with a view of submitting a proposition on municipal ownership of waterworks.

And She Will Recover.
Mrs. William Nieman, wife of a prominent farmer of near Troy, was struck by lightning and her jaws were locked for 14 hours. She will recover.

His Father Fought in 1812.
A. J. Powell, a pioneer of Centralia, committed suicide in a hotel at Mexico. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812.

Labor Day September 7.
Gov. Dockery has issued a proclamation urging citizens of Missouri to observe Monday, September 7, as Labor day.

Death of Sheriff Gray.
Robert L. Gray, sheriff of Putnam county, is dead at Unionville. He had resided in the county 49 years.

Gantt the Principal Speaker.
The state association of the United Daughters of the Confederacy meets in Lexington September 29 and 30 and October 1. Judge James B. Gantt will deliver the annual address September 29.

Pardon for Will Prince.
Will Prince, who was convicted at Kansas City about 18 months ago of complicity in the murder of Philip Kennedy by his wife, Lulu Prince Kennedy, has been pardoned by the governor.

Kirkville's Federal Building.
The contract for erecting the new federal building at Kirkville was awarded to the Stafford Construction company, of St. Louis, for $29,986.

"A QUIET NIGHT'S REST."

Home in Suburbs Just About as Restful as a Hotel Night Have Been.

"Howdy! Where are you going?" said a representative of the Washington Star to a well-known F street business man whom he met yesterday in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania railroad depot with his grip in hand.

"Going nowhere, just come," was the response. "Been on a little business trip west."

"Anything to relate?" was the Star man's next inquiry.

"Nothing particular," said the returned traveler. "I met an old friend while I was absent whose family was in the country, and accepted his hospitality for a night, having his assurance that I would get a good night's rest. Before proceeding to his home, which was somewhere in the suburbs, I dined with him. He was very partial to crabs, and we had picked crabs first and afterwards soft shells on toast. My friend enjoyed them very much and made a heavy repast. To me they tasted as if they had been cooked in the east and forwarded west in cold storage, and I indulged very lightly. We went home early for that quiet night's rest, and retired about nine o'clock, inasmuch as I was to take the train next day for a more distant city. Well, sir, hadn't been in bed many minutes before a brass band came along, escorting a lot of very enthusiastic politicians. They halted in the neighborhood, the politicians evidently discussing some intricate question of procedure. I went to sleep when they departed, and had possibly dozed less than an hour when there was an alarm of fire in the vicinity, and the engines came with their clanging bells and galloping horses and hardly had they passed out of hearing before the brass band and the politicians came back on the home stretch.

"I didn't know whether I was going to get any sleep or not, but I did manage to get in a few naps, when I was aroused by the wildest shouts and shrieks and groans I ever heard. Cries of 'murder' and 'help' assailed my ears, and I knew that they came from my host. I tried to get to him, but couldn't exactly locate it. Then I heard a long groan, and heard him ejaculate 'Great heavens!' I followed the sound and found him sitting on the side of his bed. 'Oh, Lord!' he said, as I entered the room. 'I've got the worst case of nightmare I ever encountered in all my life. It was those confounded crabs, he said. I went to bed again, but it was not long before I found myself back in the room. 'I think I would have had a quiet night's rest if I had been slumbering in a hotel room.'"

Queer Acts Under Excitement.
People do odd things at critical moments. In a recent fire at Marshall, Mo., T. B. Gill, a book dealer, whose store was in danger, rushed outdoors carrying nothing but a box of matches. Being asked what he meant to do with them, he said he rescued them to prevent them from becoming ignited. It turned out that he had 100 boxes more in the store, which, in his excitement, he had forgotten. A few days ago a cyclone struck a farm in Atchison county, Mo. The family were aroused, and, thoroughly frightened, began grabbing what was closest and most worth saving, and rushing downstairs with it. When the excitement partly subsided, it was discovered that one good old woman had come down in her night dress carrying in one hand an unlighted kerosene lamp, and in the other a cup of water that she had beside her bed.—N. Y. Tribune.

Dr. Tanner's "Schedule."
The late Dr. Tanner when in parliament once moved the house of commons to uproarious laughter by his uncertainty with regard to the word "schedule." First he made the "ch" hard, in the American manner, and when that was received with a laugh he paused and floundered over it like a startled schoolboy. As he plunged into one pronunciation to another the house shouted with merriment. As a matter of fact, the best English dictionaries give a choice between "schedule," "skedule" and "shedule."—Chicago Daily News.

Wall Street's Decline.
Not much remains of the delusion that Wall street reflects the conditions of the country, and that the quotations constitute a barometer of the nation's business. The stock market may reflect that state of trade; it does so sometimes. But that it is anything like an accurate or consistent reflector cannot be maintained after six or eight months of a sagging stock market coincident with an extraordinary volume of general business, and exceptional soundness of trade, as shown by the highly satisfactory statistics of insolvencies.—Philadelphia Record.

Many women and doctors do not recognize the real symptoms of derangement of the female organs until too late.

"I had terrible pains along my spinal cord for two years and suffered dreadfully. I was given different medicines, wore plasters; none of the cures that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought about, I somehow felt that it was what I needed and bought a bottle to take. How glad I am that I did so; two bottles brought me immense relief, and after using three bottles more I felt new life and blood surging through my veins. It seemed as though there had been a regular house cleaning through my system, that all the sickness and poison had been taken out and new life given me instead. I have advised dozens of my friends to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for their health and happiness, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has secured this to me."—Mrs. LAURA L. BREWER, Crown Point, Indiana, Secretary Ladies Relief Corps.—45000 for full original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Every sick woman who does not understand her ailment should write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Esquimo Language.
Commander Peary, the arctic explorer, was talking to a small bunch of newspaper men at Saratoga not long ago and they were asking him a number of questions about life in the extreme latitudes, of which he can talk most entertainingly. Some one asked if he spoke the Esquimo language, and he said he did. "What's like?" continued the questioner. "For instance, how would an Esquimo say 'Good morning'?" "He wouldn't say it," replied the commander, with a slight smile. "In a country where they would have occasion to use those words only once a year, they don't have them."—Detroit Free Press.

The Question Answered.
Estill Springs, Tenn., Aug. 24th.—Many questions are being asked of Mr. C. D. Holt at this place in regard to his wonderful recovery. For two years he has been down with his back. He was so very bad that he could not even leave his shoes, and from this condition he suddenly appeared well and strong as ever.

Tender One Preferred.
Bannigan—The doctor told me to get a porous plaster for my stomach. Druggist—Yes, sir; what sort do you want? "Tis little I care what sort it is, so long as 'tis as nicely plastered."—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Summer Bath.
Nothing is more refreshing or invigorating in summer than a daily bath. Use soft, tepid water and good soap. Ivory soap is ideal for the bath; it is pure, lathers quickly and leaves the skin soft and white. The bath should be taken early in the morning, or just before retiring at night. ELEANOR R. PARKER.

WELCOME TO VENEZUELA.

Compliments Conveyed to American Representative in New Kind of English.

Robert C. Morris, a member of the board of arbitration for the settlement of the Venezuelan claim, is one of the most popular men in Caracas just now. He has been frequently in receipt of letters from natives who wish to show their good will for one reason or another. Perhaps the most unique and amusing of these letters is the following of fusion, written in English by a prominent Portuguese resident of Caracas, the Venezuelan capital, and which was forwarded to Mr. Morris shortly after his arrival. Here is the puzzling document.

"Mr. Robert C. Morris: This gentleman has arrived a few days ago to Caracas, as Arbitrator of the relation of United States of America in Venezuela.

"Mr. Morris came with his loving wife, she is very kind and handsome young lady. 'We are very glad to see you,' said these noble persons. The great Mr. Morris makes us to write these few words; there are strange who, is so grateful as Mr. Morris, we are not able to write anything about him, we are frightened to make any mistake, so we shall wait other occasion.

"Important gentlemen as Mr. Morris in Washington the Republic of Venezuela has called to him, for his intelligence and for his honest person.

"We again salute to the United States and to especially Mr. Morris, to whom we wish many happy days in Caracas and also to his wife, enjoy good luck."

Empire State Express in Foot-Ball.
The New York Central's Empire State Express is recognized as the swiftest and surest train operated by America's greatest railroad, and considered the very best means of covering the ground in the time required. It is for this reason that the Harvard University football team named their best and surest player of the season of 1932 the "Empire State Express." For many believed it to be the most reliable play in their programme. It was successful throughout the season and the Harvard team generally describe the difference in the famous trains, the "Empire State" running on from New York to Buffalo, while the "20th Century Limited" makes the 980 miles between New York and Chicago in twenty hours every day of the year. Great is the New York Central and great are the trains it operates—swift, safe and reliable.—From the Brooklyn Standard Union.

Mothers, do you know that a perfectly healthy baby never cries. When the little one does cry there's something wrong, and generally it's the stomach. Paregoric, Soothing Syrups, Cordials, Teething Syrups and Pain Killers contain opium and morphine. Don't use them. They are harmful—costly, too. Such drugs constipate and derange the digestive organs.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

is pleasant to take, augments and supplies the natural digestive ferment, acting as a gentle laxative by the power to assimilate food, makes and keeps babies in health and good humor. A trial will convince you.

Mrs. ALICE JACKSON, of Farmer City, Ill., writes: My seven-months-old baby was troubled a great deal with his stomach and bowels. I had tried numerous remedies with no good results, until the baby lost much flesh and was in very poor health. A friend recommended Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I procured a 50c bottle at the drug store and gave the contents to the baby according to directions, after which there was a decided improvement in his condition. He has been giving him Syrup Pepsin for about a month, with very satisfactory results, his stomach and bowels being in good, healthy condition and his former weight regained.

Your druggist sells it. If not, send us his name and we will send sample bottle FREE.

50c and $1 bottles.

It is economy to buy the $1 size.
